Civics Lesson Proves Voters Need to Study

Forty-five Arlington Heights and Mount Prospect residents have been given a civics test by The Day. None of them scored a passing grade.

Let's see how well you can do. Who is Joseph I. Woods?

No, he's not the mayor of Arlington Heights. That's John C. Woods. The publisher of the Chicago Tribune was that J. I. Howard Wood.

Well then, who is Donald Prince?

How about Harry Ross?

For an easier one, who is Robert Sabanjan?

IF YOU HAVE trouble identifying these men you have plenty of company.

Of the 45 named in person or by phone, only one knew that Joseph I. Woods is the Republican candidate for sheriff of Cook County.

Five knew Donald Prince as the Democratic candidate for state superintendent of public instruction.

Four knew that Harry Ross is the Republican candidate for state treasurer.

The score for Robert Sabanjan was better. Eighteen of those asked knew he is the independent write-in candidate for U.S. senator.

THE DAY team tried to steer away from politicians and active party workers, confining their efforts to the average voter — the one, the few, the all who will decide the outcome of the election.

One public office holder did come along, however. He put the test to rest. Experts say he was given the names of the three Republican candidates for Attorney of Illinois, Treasurer, and Secretary of State.

Among the "should know" turned up in routine testing (and included in the total of 45), a social studies teacher at the Arlington Heights High School, Mrs. Mary Ann Kowalski, an active member of the League of Women Voters, and a Mount Prospect resident, Mrs. Mary Ann Kowalski, an active member of the League of Women Voters, and a Mount Prospect resident, Mrs. Mary Ann Kowalski, an active member of the League of Women Voters.

High school civics classes a grade of 70 per cent or better is required for a passing mark. The day could find no one who scored better than 50 per cent.

How did you make out?

Stonewall residents describe their street lights as quaint. Village officials say the lamps are outdated. Village officials would like to replace them with modern lights that are cheaper to maintain, like the one above.

Prospects Dim on Stonewall Lighting

Village trustees review discussion tonight on the Stonewall street lights.

The lights became a topic more than a year ago when the trustee's safety committee was asked to decide what kind of lights should be used in the subdivision.

The village has $50,000 in state motor fuel tax funds it used to install new lights in the subdivision next year.

To be eligible for the state fund, lights in the area had to meet certain illumination requirements. The 156 lights now in Stonewall are 40 years old and do not meet requirements.

Subdivision residents, championed by the Stonewall Civic Association, say the lights add atmosphere to the tree-lined, winding streets.

They have refused to accept lighting proposals offered by the village and have been given until Dec. 1 to come up with a compromise.

Trustee John Walsh Jr., who heads the safety committee, said there are no new developments in the light controversy.

He wants to "reach up" to the committee with what has happened.

School Leasing Discussed

A lease agreement which would make the facilities of Elk Grove High School available for use by Harper Junior College students will be one of the items on the High School Dist. 214 board of education agenda tonight.

The board will meet at 7:30 p.m. in the Harold L. Stahmer Administration Center, 900 W. Kensington Rd., Mount Prospect.

Board members are expected to authorize the administration to make monetary arrangements for use of the school during the 1967-68 year.

MEMBERS will receive a report on the business education curriculum in the district from teachers in the business education department.

Discussion of a transportation agreement with the Northwestern Bus Co. and the appointment of an official visiting delegate to the Illinois Association of School Boards' meeting also will be on the agenda.

A district policy on purchasing goods should be scheduled for board approval.

They Have Roaring Good Time

There were Christ Hannes' clown passed on the brick wall, traditional balloons hanging from wrought iron chandeliers and enough noise to blanket Elk Grove Township when the Republican Organization roared Friday night.

More than 600 partygoers filled the Elmhurst Country Club in the township organization's major campaign fund-raising party. A half hour floor show staged by the Gary Giovanni Revue, highlighted the entertainment.

Which included dinner and dancing to the music of the Vagabonds.

Celebrants agreed the event was a success and commended Mrs. George R. Bess who headed a committee for the fifth annual township party.

Among the many political causes attending were Joseph J. Wood, candidate for Cook County sheriff, and Sheriff Richard Ogilvie, Republican nominee for president of the Cook County Board of Commissioners.

From the 3d District there were John H. Graham, incumbent state senator and David J. Kagan and Rep. Eugene Soliman, both running for re-election in the General Assembly.

Congressman Donald Rumsfeld, 13th district, was on hand to share a table with Carl Hansen, township commissioner whose wife had provided original clown poses for the occasion.

COUNTY candidates joining in the war Robert Maraban, running for superintendent of schools, Floyd Fells, incumbent county commissioner, and Homer Fells, candidate for county assessor.

Winners of a two-week trip to the Windy River Ranch, Grand Lake, Colo., were Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Dierbach, 2010 S. Berwyn Avenue, Prospect.

Winner of an original painting by Mrs. Hansen was Mrs. Maribella Allard of Chicago.

Another finalist in the contest was Lisa Christensen of Hoffman Estates, a Constant High School senior.

EDM and the first runner-up, Constant High School, and Miss Trudi Treadwell, 119 W. Park, Arlington Heights, the TPC meeting will be held Tuesday at 7:15 p.m. in the Redstone. Parents will not attend schedules to follow a classroom routine and will have an opportunity to meet teachers. Refreshments will be served in the cafeteria at 7:40 p.m.

Finalist Happy She Entered

Kim Allison Garrity, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Garrity of 2200 Bluebird Lane, Rolling Meadows, is second runner-up for the title of Miss Teenage Chicago.

The competition was sponsored by the Chicago Daily News and finals were held on WFLD-TV Friday night. Kim, a junior at Forest View High School, presented a dance which she choreographed to "The Spanish Flair."

She won a 500 college scholarship and a 5000 gift certificate.

Winner of the Miss Teenage Chicago title was 16-year-old Heidi Hoffman, 119 W. Park, Arlington Heights. She will compete in the Miss Teenage America contest in Dallas Oct. 29-Nov. 5.

"I would enter again. My parents wanted me to enter the contest last year but I didn't. Now I see that all you have to do is try and win anything. I would encourage others to try too. It's lots of fun," says Kim.

Kim will be crowned the new Miss Teenage Chicago as "friendly, nice and very pretty."

Evidence of a successful benefit — tickets, columns of figures and lists — are studied by members of Friends of Clearbrook after their third annual brunch.

Adults Lend A Hand

Children and teen-agers enrolled in the Clearbrook Center for the Retarded got a boost recently from 424 adults they were probably never met.

The adults were guests at a brunch sponsored by the Friends of Clearbrook at the Arlington Coronet. They drank cocktails, listened to music played by a combo-band and provided the Friends group with a profit of more than $2,500.

The benefit, the third annual brunch conducted by the fund-raising organization, drew about 70 more guests than last year's event.

Waitresses at the restaurant also helped, donating their tips to Clearbrook, a school for children and pre-vocational training center and sheltered workshop for young adults located at 1201 W. Campbell, Rolling Meadows.

JAMES NASON of Arlington Heights, a businessman whose wife is a Friends member, organized the combo and played piano.

Husbands of other members sold bar tickets and performed other tasks.

Jimmy Duran was an unexpected visitor, mingling among the throng and saying hello to married guests.

Mrs. Maxwell P. Crockett, Friends president, called the event "the best ever."

MRS. WILLIS J. JONES was brunch chairman, assisted by Mrs. James Bragg. Others responsible for the party were Mrs. William McAlister, ticket chairman; Mrs. Orville Tomlin, refreshment chairman; Mrs. Charles K. Babbette, ticket chairman; Mr. Paul Glick, auction chairman; Mrs. Margaret MacLean, assistant chairman; Mrs. Howard W. Henson, directed money; and Mrs. Virginia Lyons, bar assistant.

Mrs. Glick also served as publicity chairman.

Who Needs A Decorator?

BY
ARTHUR N. HERBST,
INTERIOR CONSULTANT
CROSSROADS INTERIORS

You do! You need a decorator even if you have the best taste and all the time in the world. An interior decorator can create, blend and accessorize for you. He can visualize, organize and coordinate for you. The professional decorator will stop you from making costly mistakes.

A talented decorator can always work within any budget, because balance and color need not be expensive. This professional help allows you to stay within your own budget, often saving you money and always creating a beautiful and functional effect.

What is the cost of this service? At Crossroads Interiors there is no charge for expert professional consultation. There is no obligation to buy. You may bring your problem to the writer or phone Crossroads for "in the home" decorator consultation. There is no problem too large or too small.

Crossroads Interiors offers one of Park Ridge's largest selections of draperies, furniture, carpeting, lamps and accessories. Prices range high to low. We have all you need to create a beautiful home.

Let our talented decorating help you to achieve this. Be sure to watch for our ad in this newspaper.

Most for Your Dollar

Esther Peterson Goes Shopping

Esther Peterson, special assistant to the President for consumer affairs, told area housewives how to get the most from their food dollars Friday in Elk Grove Village.

Mrs. Peterson spent more than an hour visiting with customers at the Jewel Food Store in Grove Shopping Center. She also took turns around the sales and explained her selection.

Here to campaign for Sen. Paul H. Douglas, incumbent Illinois Democrat, Mrs. Peterson was accompanied by wives of three other candidates for public office. They were Mrs. Bernard Potts of Northbrook, wife of the Democratic candidate for state representative from the third district, Mrs. James McCabe, 212 S. Ridge, Arlington Heights, wife of the Democratic candidate for 13th District Congressman, and Mrs. Norma Nelson of Elk Grove, wife of the Democratic candidate for state Senator from the third district.

Panhellenic Card Party

Panhellenic women from the northwest suburbs area and their guests will have dinner, play cards and talk at a meeting Thursday, Oct. 27 at the Elks Club, 2233 Wilcox, Arlington Heights.

The event, which will begin at 8 p.m., will have a Halloween theme.

Proceeds will finance an annual information party Panhellenic conducts for high school senior girls and their mothers and hosts the Panhellenic Scholarship Fund.

Mrs. Lynn Hyvari, 321 N. Yale, Arlington Heights, is the hostess.

Lynn Hyvari Honored By Bethel

Lynn Hyvari, senior principal of Bethel 107 of St. Joseph's, was named an honored woman in a recent Bethel advance night.

Her officers were princess from Arlington Heights, Barrington, Elk Grove Village, Park Ridge, Elgin, Lake Zurich, Lombard and Downers Grove.

Theme of the evening meeting was "Lynn to Johnnie," with tables decorated in the style of the Mad Hatter's tea party from Alice in Wonderland. Co-chairmen, Mrs. Margaret Hamilton, the Mad Hatter, Sharon Lock, the rabbit.

bridge chairman. Her co-chairman is Mrs. Frank McGraw, 1520 Blackhawk Dr., Mount Prospect.

Resale And Rummage

A resale and rummage and bazaar sale will be conducted Oct. 28 and 29 by the Buffalo Grove Women's Club.

Site will be the community room of the Ranch Mart in Buffalo Grove. Scheduled are a rummage sale and resale, 7 to 9 p.m. Oct. 28, and rummage sale, resale and bazaar sale, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Oct. 29.

Book Review

Herbert Danson will review "Tall No Man," by Adelle Rogers St. John, at a Wednesday, Oct. 26 meeting of the Prospect Heights Book Club.

The meeting is scheduled for 12:30 p.m. at Old Orchard Country Club, Mount Prospect. Members have been asked to bring tickets.

Allen-Conley Combination Powers Cards Past F V 1

BY DALE HORMAN

Allen-Conley was etched into the record books of Arlington High School and the football memories of Forest View Friday.

The show-stopping aerial dive ended the Cardinals' unbeaten streak in a 19-0 loss and set a record for the Cardinals by scoring 20-0.

STEVE CONLEY made Deaf's Night at Arlington High School a memorable one by scoring 10 points good for 126 yards and a school record. No one had ever caught more than nine in one game for the Cardinals before.

One of Conley's receptions went for a touchdown. He also picked up 76 yards on the ground in seven carries, and Friday's setback, slipping to a touchdown in the Cardinal half-back hadn't fumbled in the defense.

Half the credit for Conley's success had to go to quarterback Steve Allen. He threw for 30 yards to the Cardinals, completing 12 with one interception. He drove Conley to two touchdowns past and sneaked the Big Red's first score, 12-0, all by himself. He was Arlington's second biggest threat on the ground with 35 yards from scrimmage.

they expanded five minutes into the game in the waning moments of the half, picking up two first downs and advancing to the ground attack it would use so effectively after halftime.

It was all Falcons in the third period. Scott's crew ran 22 plays to Arlington's 11 in the period. Another interception by Lockwood sealed the Forest View drive, but the Falcons were back on the Cardinal 12 in the quarter.

Tasche was back on the second-half play of the period though, and the play went out of the Forest View attack. A fumble by Dennis Lynch gave the ball back to Arlington as the first quarter began.

THE FALCONS drove to the Arlington 28 midway through the fourth period before running out of time. But the Cardinals backed to the Forest View 48 and passed the Falcons on their one offensive play when Tom Chandler downed a booming Red Sox punt.

Allen Praises Team Effort, But Limelight Is For Conley

Arlington Coach Al Allen called Friday's 26-0 romp over Forest View "a good team effort." But the man everyone was talking about when it was all over was hairy Steve Conley.

THE 195-pound power-lifter reached a personal peak Friday when he pulled down 16 pounds to set a school record. Allen called it "a good team effort." But the man everyone was talking about when it was all over was hairy Steve Conley.

Conley was a "fine" team player for the Cardinals. The Big Red machine ground 20-0 in the fourth quarter.

Lockwood proved the weakness of Arlington's passing game when Forest View left Conley with the ball on the 12 in the second quarter. He collected one touchdown and could have had two but for a second quarter fumble in the fourth quarter.

Allen was quick to credit his quarterback, Steve Allen, for much of the Cardinals' success. "He found the holes and picked them just right," Allen said. "If Steve hadn't been smart, we wouldn't have gotten the ball to Steve as many times as we did."

Horoscope

Taurus (Apr. 21-May 21)
SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)
 Don't allow ragorous of ideas to spoil an otherwise excellent business or professional day. May not a true course.
SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 22)
 The Sagittarius who is reluctant to take a chance on another's good will may lose out on a golden opportunity. Bring your late play.
CAPRICORN (Dec. 23-Jan. 20)
 The comfort you bring to another today should come back to you a thousandfold some distant tomorrow. Invest in the future.
AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)
 A romantic day for the Aquarius with eyes and heart to see and feel it. Don't let arguments ride out the sea.
PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 21)
 A day which should see a major revelation a reality. Don't take a morning setback as anything more serious than it really is.
ARIES (Mar. 22-Apr. 20)
 The Aries who grows in to a feeling of restlessness may regret time lost. Success in the near future depends on today.
TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21)
 Unconcerning can spoil your chances of cultivating a genial business deal at a time. Let your natural optimism take over.
GEMINI (May 22-June 21)
 Only the early Gemini will be up in time to take the bull by the horns. Don't allow a bit of laziness to rob you of success.
CANCER (June 22-July 23)
 The heavily observant Cancer should be able to spot an opportunity before it arrives. Get the jump on the competition!
LEO (July 24-Aug. 23)
 Conquer your business and your feelings if you would get through this day without giving words away. Stay away from temptation.
VIRGO (Aug. 24-Sept. 23)
 Don't wear a protective coating of reticence today unless you're after an argument with those nearest and dearest.
LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)
 A farging return is the best to receive forgiveness. Own up to a mischief and repair the pieces of mind you've been hanging for.

BY JERILYN WATSON
Women's Editor

Over 50 and troubled by sagging tops? Never again required your figure since Santa was born? A life-long struggle with belly bulge? If you, dear "me" in your answer to any of these questions, you may want a shopping trip to Rome or Paris.

Designers there are likely to be considerate of your problem, sometimes much more than in the home vicinity. That's because women still are identified by Latin, women of all ages, shapes and varieties.

ties. They haven't derided their fashion efforts entirely to the bold and beautiful lines of 17.

Many Paris designers will show customers the same dress in several versions — sleeveless, with cap sleeves or three-quarter sleeves.

And though sleeveless styles remain the most popular on the continent, they are shown with matching boleros, jackets, sweaters or stoles to hide the line-less-tops problem.

THE WAISTLINE that isn't as trim as it used to be is a problem only if styles emphasize it — and Latin designers are deprecating the chunky middle this year.

From afternoon dresses to the most elegant evening gown, the line is easy, fluid, unobtrusive. Tailoring is straight, avoiding underlines that make over the shoulders woman look taller.

Two-piece costumes feature evening blouses in softer, ladylike and silk that stop around the waist. The blouses are just as likely to turn up these days on a jacket or a skirt.

A bon for the women with a hunch-backed neckline is the strapless-across collar, which hides wrinkles and hunchy bones. This design, as well as the high-cut jewelry collar, is expected.

Colors are gently unobtrusive, like pink, blue, and turquoise — not the whole color and the whole color.

Understandably, the expected French and Italian women as may wear a little longer before wearing evening wear. To today's day-dressers, however, and women wearing high-cut evening wear.

The expected look is another style away to avoid in Europe, even capitals. Turquoise, traditionally worn with white, is just as likely to turn up these days on a jacket or a skirt.

A bon for the women with a hunch-backed neckline is the strapless-across collar, which hides wrinkles and hunchy bones. This design, as well as the high-cut jewelry collar, is expected.

So look, these necklines often are covered with fringe, lace, jewels or mock-jewels.

SHOULD GOOD to you?

You can skip a European shopping trip without leaving home if you're clever. Hunt the home stores where American copies of Roman and Paris styles are offered for very low prices.

You say, all the better? Study patterns for easy-fitting styles. They are available in various sizes, European style.

You may find the Christian Dior has nothing on the American homemaker.

Leather Comes In Out of the Cold

In staggoch days leather had its place mainly in the man's world — saddles, fringed jackets, rugged-appearing wear, and of course, the tepee.

Women have brought leather out of the cold. Now it doesn't require a phantasm that wears a hide in that leather or blanda right is at the very of the leath, the P or a party.

DESIGNS in simple made to dress the cloth. Sets and past sets come in lacquer, gray, orange, gold, mixing and more, and have their own creases or shells with jacketing to wear.

Costs are short and body-stretching for the wrap-around. And you can choose from class cardigan lines, military double-breasted styles, belted trench coats or slim dressy models.

Busy Week For Girls

A visit to a light-house, our walk and a camping overnight are recent projects of the members of the Camp Fire Girls.

Second-grade Blue Bird from two Arlington Heights schools visited Green Point Lighthouse in Evanston and toured a nature center.

The girls, students at Dwyer School and Our Lady of the Wayside School, are Janet Burge, Janet Brakes, Julie Fisk, Jill Livermore, Jackie Smith, Barbara McDonald, Jane Hoyle, Judy Lyle, Rene Suter, Carly Nicholson, and Carol Kowalski. Leaders are Mrs. Frances Livermore and Mrs. Edward Burge.

Girls of the Twa All Horizon Club, Arlington Heights, held a car wash and bake sale Saturday at Faith Lutheran Church.

MEMBERS of Tu Was A Ya, a group for anti-grade Camp Fire Girls in Rolling Meadows, spent a weekend at Chain O' Lakes State Park near Fox Lake. They were guests of the Pioneer Council of Boy Scouts of Chicago at a council fire.

Youngsters making the trip were Bailey, Diane Bue, Susan Johnson, Patty Laft, Pat Kelly, Drew Koon, and Kathy Sorenson. Leaders were Lori Spier and Teresa Wright.

Accompanying them were Mrs. William Bailey, group chairman, and Mrs. Earl Skardavoy, co-chairman.

Some Day

One of those postmen in Washington spent a lot of publicity funds telling taxpayers how great the mail service has become under his administration.

If money were correctly, it was during the Eisenhower administration. It was a good public relations campaign and perhaps some people started to believe the pictures and all that.

All that is lost now under the Johnson Great Society that economized on post office services. Elections mail has been recovered from Lake Michigan, third class mail has piled up in post offices and the communications became outdated and home delivery of first class letters have lost all sense of urgency.

The post office system is a branch of government the people can observe daily. It is one of the few billion-dollar operations people can check from their front windows.

President Johnson is too shrewd a politician to blunder into poor mail service unless he wants to impress people with his role as penny pincher, much like he tried to do with his White House lights.

Maybe it is a good prelude to an income tax increase, but anyone would much rather hear about economy in some other department further from home.

Some of the Christmas rush will swamp the post office; the Nov. 8 election will be no exception. Do not be surprised when the mail crisis becomes one of the reasons more tax money is necessary.

Postal employees are in the same situation as policemen, firemen and teachers when it comes to salaries. Police and fire departments double their pay in a year, teachers deal with school boards, all different saving acts, but the end result is the same. It is difficult to imagine the Chicago Post Office being unable to attract and hold employees. Maybe the pay is no longer sufficient when compared with the income people can make from other investment programs requiring less labor.

People are funny about their mail. They like it delivered on time. Some day as soon as they are convinced that the only way they will get better service is from a tax increase, the Great Society will have come to another half step.

Vantage Point

National and state election returns will be available to television viewers at an ever-escalating point the night of Nov. 8.

By mutual arrangement, the major television networks and wire services will combine their resources and talent to make accurate election returns fast and accurate.

It will cost the election night coverage over $15 million for election night coverage. Of course, they mean their investment through sale of election coverage shows to prosper.

On Nov. 8, election coverage will blanket entertainment on the three major Chicago commercial, VHF television stations.

The fourth station, WGN-TV (Channel 9), will look to straighten out its programming. Carefully enough, WGN did the same thing during the crucial presidential elections of 1964 and outgrew its reputation in the battle of the ratings.

Could this be the answer in the many signs of voter apathy in the area?

ONE UNLAME phase of election night coverage will be participation by hundreds of Illinois leaders, members of the Illinois Education Association, who will serve as reporters throughout the state.

The teachers will cover 60 per cent of the state's primary, gathering only returns for computer feed. The results that will be sent to computers allow easy predictions on which candidate or political party is going to be the winner.

Complicating the picture on Nov. 8 is the fact that many observers believe this will be a "split and choose" election. They look for a narrow margin in the state and a narrow margin in the individual merits of the candidates.

We agree with this premise. It is not inconceivable to us that some Republicans could carry the City of Chicago for the first time in over 100 years.

Get a Jump on Spring, Plant Those Trees Now

BY RICHARD DE LANO

Late is the time for leaf raking but it's also a good planting time for trees and shrubs.

Start by digging the planting hole large enough for the roots plus plenty of good soil. You can dig the hole too large but make the hole too small.

Put a layer of soil on the bottom of the hole. The soil should be loose and rich. The soil should be loose and rich. The soil should be loose and rich.

For County Assessor

Two qualified men, P. J. Catterton, Democrat, and Homer H. Fields, Republican, are seeking election for County assessor.

Catterton is now ending his second four year term in that office, an office he has conducted without hint of scandal. He has been a good public servant.

Fields is a junior college professor of economics and a real estate broker. He has an excellent reputation in suburban Lyons, Ill. Two where he and his family have long resided.

It is difficult to choose between the two candidates. The day has no doubts but that Mr. Fields would give good administration to the office. But Mr. Catterton's years of good administration to the same office should not be overlooked. One who has served well is entitled to consideration. Without disparagement of Mr. Fields, who would, no doubt, give a good account of himself, if elected, The Day endorses Mr. Catterton for re-election.

Count County is fortunate in that a well-qualified man will occupy the office irrespective of the election outcome.

Letters to the Editor

As a matter of fact, the opposition to the revenue article is based largely on the argument that it is a "no restriction" is that it takes away from the legislature the privilege of assessing a graduated income tax and that it shows a lack of confidence in the legislature by asking it to do so.

Whether the political parties can live with the proposed amendment of uncertainty, it is of income tax is a question that should be asked.

There is no doubt that the legislature could assess a non-graduated income tax at the present time under the present constitution. There are no other changes.

Explanation Of Revenue Article

Editor: Your "Vantage Point" column in the Blue Book of Illinois is an article in which it focuses on the real issue in the current election.

The difficulty is that I fear your discussion of this question gives the wrong impression.

The essential point is this: The Blue Book Revenue Article does three things relating to a state income tax.

1. It prohibits specifically and absolutely a graduated income tax.

2. It sets a 3 per cent limit on the present authority of the legislature to enact a non-graduated income tax.

3. It requires abolition of all personal property taxes at such time that the legislature desires to pass a non-graduated income tax.

How does this provision differ from the present Revenue Article? Does the new amendment provide a whole new machinery that will lead inevitably to an income tax, despite the positions taken by the two political parties in their platform?

Here is the answer: 1. There is a difference of opinion as to whether the Courts would permit the legislature to pass a graduated income tax and that it shows a lack of confidence in the legislature by asking it to do so.

Whether the political parties can live with the proposed amendment of uncertainty, it is of income tax is a question that should be asked.

Housewife Wins Cheers In Talk to City Council

By MEL MILLS

A portly housewife recently challenged the Rolling Meadows city council last night and won a standing ovation from spectators.

Mrs. Jerry Howard, wife of the city's former fire marshal, took Mayor William Minick and the city council to task for considering abolition of the post of city fire marshal.

Her husband, Jerry, resigned from his 3500-a-year post after a controversy regarding statements he made to a Rolling Meadows newspaper (The Day).

Mrs. Howard, clad in a towel and clutching a set of notes, was recognized during the December period of the council's office for comments from the public.

Mrs. Howard said she was at the meeting as a citizen to urge the council to consider abolishing the position of fire marshal.

"I'm here to tell you that I'm a housewife and I'm a mother," she said. "I'm a woman who has a right to be heard."

"I'm a woman who has a right to be heard," she said. "I'm a woman who has a right to be heard."

"I'm a woman who has a right to be heard," she said. "I'm a woman who has a right to be heard."

"I'm a woman who has a right to be heard," she said. "I'm a woman who has a right to be heard."

"I'm a woman who has a right to be heard," she said. "I'm a woman who has a right to be heard."

"I'm a woman who has a right to be heard," she said. "I'm a woman who has a right to be heard."

"I'm a woman who has a right to be heard," she said. "I'm a woman who has a right to be heard."

"I'm a woman who has a right to be heard," she said. "I'm a woman who has a right to be heard."

polity, you're charged with the safety and well-being of the city," she added.

ALDERMAN Jack Madala interrupted and said he felt that Mrs. Howard's husband had gone about his job in the wrong way.

"I've not been to defend or speak for my husband," Mrs. Howard countered. "I've come to talk about the reputation of the office."

"Your husband never attended any meetings," Madala said. "If my husband is criticized, I'll answer his critics himself."

"Let me say again, I'm here as a private citizen, not as a wife defending her husband," she said.

At that moment, the alien star of the housewife meeting had begun screaming, signaling the council.

First child Thomas Fogarty, who had been standing in the back of the room, shouted out: "I'm here to tell you that I'm a housewife and I'm a mother."

"I'm a woman who has a right to be heard," she said. "I'm a woman who has a right to be heard."

"I'm a woman who has a right to be heard," she said. "I'm a woman who has a right to be heard."

"I'm a woman who has a right to be heard," she said. "I'm a woman who has a right to be heard."

"I'm a woman who has a right to be heard," she said. "I'm a woman who has a right to be heard."

"I'm a woman who has a right to be heard," she said. "I'm a woman who has a right to be heard."

"I'm a woman who has a right to be heard," she said. "I'm a woman who has a right to be heard."

"I'm a woman who has a right to be heard," she said. "I'm a woman who has a right to be heard."

"I'm a woman who has a right to be heard," she said. "I'm a woman who has a right to be heard."

"I'm a woman who has a right to be heard," she said. "I'm a woman who has a right to be heard."

Mrs. Howard began reading a prepared statement. Alderman Madala and William O'Connell tried to interrupt her.

Suddenly, Minick began his own speech and said, "The fire marshal is a position of great importance. It is a position of great importance."

"I've not been to defend or speak for my husband," Mrs. Howard countered. "I've come to talk about the reputation of the office."

"Your husband never attended any meetings," Madala said. "If my husband is criticized, I'll answer his critics himself."

Trustees Discuss Village's Largest Annexation Plan

By MEL PETERSON

Village trustees got together with developers last night in the first of what promises to be many lengthy sessions on the largest annexation request in village history.

For the most part, it was a shambles, a meeting in which each side put its cards on the table.

The topic of discussion: two requests that would bring a total of 315 acres into the village.

its president Arthur Zaltzman and attorney Howard Bode, the two-family zoning is necessary to make their complex, plus economically possible.

ZALTZMAN said the two-family units would sell for $30,000 and $20,000, and be especially attractive.

"It's not everyone who can afford to pay $30,000, $20,000 or $50,000 for a new home," he said. "We would like to offer for the normal family wage-earner that the village wants to attract to its industrial park a place to live."

Bode, a two-family attorney who appears before the board regularly representing the developer or another, called the Pashinski "zoning" and "as a new Arlington Heights will be proud of."

Police Counselor At 4th School

The Wheeling Village Board adopted a resolution Monday authorizing the police chief to initiate the police counselor program in Wheeling High School and a junior high school in the village.

This brings to four the number of high school District 24 schools that will have the program. Arlington and Forest View administrators will be interviewing candidates for the posts. Elk Grove High School already has an officer on duty. Forest View High School has one but not believe a police counselor necessary.

Implementation of the program is to begin at the earliest possible time. The number of the Wheeling Police Department will be increased and a policy of responsibility will be determined by the officer and school officials.

"We will gear for a September, 1967 date but we would like to have a counselor before that time if it is feasible," said Wheeling Police Chief Sp. Sgt. Harbison.

"THROUGH this system the community can become more aware of the fact that the police are a part of society and police are interested in their own problems. They are familiar the community services and solutions to these problems without the use of law enforcement," Harbison said.

In an effort to study the program a group of Wheeling police officers and school administrators visited Flint, Mich. where the police counselor program has been in effect.

Attending were Peter Egan and Richard Frederick of the village of Wheeling, Chief Harbison, Kenneth Giff, superintendent of Elementary School District 21, and Frank Rohan and Thomas Shiley, principal of Wheeling High School. Shiley told board of education members that the Wheeling Police Department has been co-operating with the school administration and it is hopeful that the counselor in the schools will be as useful to both authorities.

Only interview will be conducted Thursday for police counselors for Arlington and Forest View High Schools.

ARLINGTON Heights Police Chief L. W. Caldwell said the seven applicants will be interviewed by the school principals and the two assistant principals for administrative services. Chief Caldwell said the men from his department volunteered for the assignment and will be assigned with the help of the school administration.

Caldwell said the plain clothes officers would be functioning in the schools "in a few weeks."

Pony Tail Express

By Catherine O'Donnell

"One of the best mail carriers we have. We certainly could not do better. She embodies all of the positive traits for service and dependability."

Robert Frohman speaking about Frances Dufresne the only woman to make a working from the Arlington Heights post office.

From Postmaster Virginia Dodge right through the route to the subscribers, everyone agrees that Frances is the most addition to the postal service. Early next month she will begin her second year. The first year's pay Frances took in 11:30. She has not missed a day of work.

"You need one thing to be a regular mailman," and Frances says, "You need a good day of walking for five hours a day and a good day of carrying a mail bag. I have been doing this for five years and I am still going strong. I have been doing this for five years and I am still going strong. I have been doing this for five years and I am still going strong."

"I don't know a school bus for people and animals. The work is not very hard. It is a good day of walking for five hours a day and a good day of carrying a mail bag. I have been doing this for five years and I am still going strong. I have been doing this for five years and I am still going strong. I have been doing this for five years and I am still going strong."

Cardinals Top Lions In Final Dual Test

BY BOB CASTELLANE

Arlington's variety cross-country team made it a complete every yesterday, winning its 12th straight dual meet against the Lions while leading St. Victor 15-4-2 deficit.

The scores complicated dual competition for both schools, and every district and state meets remains.

THE CARDINALS barriers grabbed off the first place as an owner to their strength, with Dave Deters leading the pack with a time of 10:20.

Teamrunner Jerry Cassidy was second, posting a 10:12 clock. Tom Semason of Arlington was third, followed by Greg Bunch in fourth and Rick Sartin in fifth.

BOB VERNICK was the first Lion into the chute, taking sixth place with a 12:41.

St. Victor took seventh and eighth, too, with Pat Jackson and Mark Bowman both on the team's back.

Arlington's Larry Macdonald placed ninth, followed by four straight Lion finishers.

Lon Peterson was 10th, Greg Peterson 11th, Mike Cunningham 12th, and Fred Brown 13th.

JIM STUBBS took 14th for the Lions.

Arlington and Don Rick of St. Victor cruised out of the dual. Arlington's fresh-out sprint was almost as successful as the variety, but a disorientation effort by St. Victor's Kevin Williams kept the Cardinals out of the first five places.

FREEMAN STUBBS led the Cardinals to a 15-4-2 win, taking first in 10:04. Chained, small but very agile runner, dashed home second for the Lions, posting an 11:56.

The Cardinals walked off with the rest of the team, taking the next five places. Dave Woods of St. Victor was the second Lion home, finishing eighth.

THIRD PLACE went to Arlington's Al McKay, followed in order by Dave Marshall, Ed Price, Ken Madelonis, and Jim Klotz.

After Woods came the Cardinals' John Faus, and Dave Brown of St. Victor rounded out the top 10.

FINISHING POINTS for the Lions, and taking 11th in the race, was Bill Krewer, followed by teammate Scott Green in 12th.

Both schools will compete next weekend in the Meigs West District meet.

Wheeling Wins Final Dual Meet

Wheeling closed its 1966 variety cross-country dual meet schedule on a winning note yesterday, knocking off West Leyden 19-17. The win was Wheeling's third in dual competition against 10 teams, and left the Wildcats with only the Blaine District meet remaining.

THE BLADE and Gold Bears grabbed all but second among the first six places in the race, as senior Bill Smith led the way with a 9:48 first-place finish.

Michael L. Eaton placed third, followed in order, by Bill Marston (6th), Andy Black (5th), and Steve Mayhew (4th). All are juniors.

KEITH GREENE finished first for the Wildcats' fresh-out sprint, spearing a 19:50. The win was clinched in 12:57. The winning fresh-out crew posted an 8:55 dual-meet record for the season.

Kew's Chantry (right) of St. Victor offers a congratulatory handshake to Arlington's Scott Butler after Butler's win in yesterday's fresh-out hurdle race. Chantry finished second.

Illini are Wary Of Purdue Passes

There were few surprises in the scoring report on Purdue for the Wildcats' assistant coach Lou Baker yesterday. The team's top scorer, Baker, was wretched the Bulls' runners, who must have been startled by Michigan State's 22-21 and Iowa State's 41-20.

ROSE BAKER himself became the captain's homecoming officer, a point offense headed by a great Bob Green, and another fine group of receivers are making factors working for the Wildcats, Baker said.

"THIS IS a team which has lost only to Notre Dame and Michigan State, the top two teams in the country," Baker pointed out.

"Purdue has averaged 24 points a game in compiling its 4-2 record. Green, who is just good as he has lost only two of his top three receivers back in Jim Faus, and Jim Brown, although both had first in this year's pass-catching drive, is a good one, although I think I'd have to say that none of the three matches Baker."

"MOLLENKOFF moved several defense linemen into offense before the season started to help up the blocking for Green, and Green can take advantage of it. There are not many players who can throw as quickly as Green, or as well off balance and on the run as he is."

Baker - who is a better - said that "trying to catch Green in this style is about as quick as a squirrel when it's running and you're running."

Bob Nance of St. Victor was the first Lion to flash in yesterday's dual, and - most against Arlington. The flashy Lion barrier grabbed sixth place in the meet.

Eddy Rates 20th Among N.D.'s All-time Rushers

Irish All American half-back Nick Eddy, senior from Lafayette, Calif., ranks 20th in the all-time Notre Dame ground gainers with 1072 yards, and should move into the top ten list this season.

In 1965, Eddy led the team in rushing with 562 yards in 115 carries, Nick topped the team in rushing with 123 receptions (nearly 23% of all passes) for 123 yards and two touchdowns.

What to expect from Eddy in 1967? With the pass back in the Notre Dame offense back Eddy figures to have his most exciting year both receiving and running. (lower 20) featuring alignments.

A pack of fresh-out runners from Arlington and St. Victor near past the center in yesterday's dual meet won by Arlington. Harverson was, from left, John Faus and Al McKay of Arlington, Don Brown of St. Victor, and Scott Butler of Arlington.

THOUGHTS WHILE WAITING for the kick-off...
They say the Big Ten representative to the Rose Bowl will be decided at West Lafayette, Ind., Saturday when Illinois meets Purdue. Better Bricks!

No one is looking, but Northwestern is the team of destiny this year. The Cats are going to sneak into Pasadena as the first game of the league season. Here, NU alone, is how it's going to do it.

Illinois will knock off Purdue Saturday because the Boilers are all tickered out from their thrashing at Michigan State last week. That will leave the Illinois with a 3-1 record and Purdue with a 2-2 card.

The Cats, meanwhile, will slip to a 1-2-1 record when the bulletin from East Lansing pound lumps on the Evanston horizon. It would be crazy to predict it any other way. We're reckless sometimes but never crazy.

ILLINOIS will lose next week, though, to a rapidly improving Michigan eleven, while Purdue climbs back into a tie for the lead by crushing Wisconsin. Northwestern will revive with a narrow win over Minnesota.

All three clubs will will the following week with the Illinois jumping Wisconsin and Purdue rolling over Minnesota. In a big upset, the Pussy Cats will rise up and demolish the Badgers.

THAT LEAVES Purdue and Illinois with 2-2 records and the Cats at 3-2-1 on the last day of the season, right? No, only Northwestern has to do it to its lesser field advantage to club Illinois into submission while Indiana is wrestling the Old Oaken Bucket from Purdue at Lafayette.

IN THE WILDCATS 4-2-1, and Illinois and Purdue are happy to see three long losses against four wins. Michigan State will win the Big Ten title, but they can't go to the Rose Bowl because they were last year.

We can smell the blossoms already.

THE CHINESE five drill game calls the World Boxing Association left itself a real paincase of difficulty to shoot for last week. Who else but a WBA official would crown a referee's decision after a fight, and then award victory to the man who had been ruled the loser on a TKO?

The Association may have to abolish referees entirely and provide as a committee of the whole at every WBA sanctioned fight, so gentlemen who run that show are having enough trouble getting referees to pay attention to them without antagonizing referees.

I DON'T KNOW what rank as the athletic achievement of the year for 1966. I witnessed last Sunday. It was our daughter's first birthday and she chose the occasion to take her first trip across the river on foot.

I'm saving the excitement of watching Cain Sayers return a kick-off 92 yards anytime for a punt. The kid taking tentative steps on tip-toe with her hands balanced delicately above her head like a contortionist.

WONDER if the Chicago Bears' mediocre start reflects a need for more practice? We can't see how George Halas finds time to study the schedule drills that won't interfere with the plans of the Bruiser and television.

Halas can sympathize with the problems of Rudy Ruck, Johnny Morris, Mike Pyle, et al. now that he has a 2-2 record. It is the guy with a real problem. He predicts the pro winners every week on his radio show. Why can he do when he feels the Bears are heading for a fall?

Anyone who has left groping after flailing the book Seven Days in May should pick up the authors' first effort. It's called Seven Days.

THIS HAS to be the year of the football in the Mid-South League. There's not a team in the loop that doesn't have a top-notch performer at that position. In this area, Hank Tackles, (Forest View), Son Hittman (Wheeling), Vince Carr (Proctorville), and Mick Wadkins (Arlington), could make just about anyone's all-star team.

You're depriving yourself of a real treat if you don't come in a Canadian football game at least once.

Can't we be the team of the future in local football scrambles. The Congress have displayed a leading program with an all-Purdue halfback. Three of their starting offensive linemen were juniors too in the Prospect - Connet game played two weeks ago.

Do the problems of the world ever get to be too much for you? Try putting down your newspaper for a couple of minutes and reading an Archie comic book.

Wildcats' Seniors Seek Big Splash In Final Home Tilt

BY DALE NORMAN

All but one of Whiting High's seniors could be bid farewell to the home fans Saturday when the Wildcats tackle Palatine for a Dual Day event.

It's hardly a thought to warm the heart of a senior coach when at this stage of the season, can be forgiven for looking back on the seniors as prospects. But Coach Bill Detschke sees the situation as something of a mixed home line.

"I THINK the fact that all of our boys, with the exception of (quarterback) Robin Holm, will be playing their last game on their own field Saturday will keep them from looking past the Palatine game to Maine West," he said.

The Wildcats take on the league's no. 1 leaders a week later Saturday at Maine West. Detschke said Palatine must be thought of as a leading threat despite the Palatine's "impressive" record as this year. "They have shown a powerful offense in this year, but defensive lapses have kept them out of the running," Detschke added.

COACH DALETSKI

them, and Prospect would have to spend Arlington if the Blue and Gold is to lead on Saturday.

BUT DALETSKI said that he wasn't very concerned by the chances of his team collecting its first league title.

"I think the kids are just shooting for a 7-1 season now," Detschke said. "I don't want to take anything away from every team in the league."

We held Elkhart to 14 points in 11 carries last year," Detschke said. "If we have the personnel to be successful, we will be there when we go to stop Arlington."

Still, he thinks his Cats could score a big moral victory by knocking off Maine West - the team that held Arlington to 14-14 in 1965.

Dunnigan Joins Fresh Gridders

Pat Dunnigan of St. George's, a 1966 graduate of Forest View High School, is a member of the freshman football team at the University of Iowa, Iowa City.

He was a three-point star at Forest View, leading the team in football, basketball, and track.

Ambitious Girls Have Reporter's Rapt Attention

By BILL PETERSON

Oh, to be 17 and single.
Girls, girls, girls and more girls. It was the kind of enthusiasm I saw in the girls.
The kind I've never seen before.
Three weeks ago the school travels about the world.
The long straight line that the really the chicks now have.
Chick's hair, but even short and short and short and short the cut was very much in the style.

SHADON had her hair and neck and the rest of her
I could get on. But before you get any idea I'd like to tell it's all about her.

About 160 are high school
Occupational Education and Disability students. They are about one half again for a school day and work from 15 to 25 hours a week in the school.

The students paid—some up to $12.50 a hour, I found out.
And they receive no money for their work.

They aren't the same kind you see in the picture books, but rather, ordinary girls with a few exceptions.
Although a few are still in the class showing signs of being new, most of them are young people who are paid.

Basin Promise
Told by Builder

A hearing in the Chancery Division of Circuit Court on a suit filed by John Mianci against the Village of Arlington Heights and the Arlington Heights Park
District, entered its fourth day today.

Mianci, developer of Hickory Meadows subdivision, is suing the village and the park district for ownership of the water basin at Hickory Meadows.

It is stated that a verbal agreement was made with the village attorney at the time of construction that the basin would be returned to him after a five-year period if it was not used for water retention.

The village attorney at that time was Hugo Thiel who is now deceased.

Judge Daniel Carroll heard testimony from Thiel, his son, old Carl, chairman of the Planning Commission, Robert
Bishop, former village trustee, and William Coleman, of Columbus and James Coleman, suing against the village.

REDFORD, a trustee from 1953 to 1957 who was the village board would not appear in the subdivision hearing.

advised for water retention.

Sanitary Dist. Chief Explains Tax Levy

BY JACK A. VANDERBYN

Prospect Heights may discomfit itself from the Metropolitan Sanitary District of Greater Chicago if residents believe their tax contributions to the district serve no useful purpose.

The was the premise of Vice Mayor, general superintendent of the district, at a meeting of about 100 members of the Prospect Heights Improvement most Area last night.

"But in the sanitary district," Bacon said, "you are creating a valuable sanitary in your future development. This sanitary will pay off for you when one day you have your own sewer system and utilize the sanitary district sewer service that is now all around you."

Bacon's appearance before the PHIA was arranged by Mayor Anne Carter, whose husband is the district's personal doctor. He is a collector and the association's president, William Vallant.

DURING his hour long presentation, Bacon made no reference to the scandals that Mayor Anne Carter, when she was the district's personal doctor, he was brought down in a question and answer session following his formal presentation that he was in Prospect Heights to discuss sewer, "not our sociological problems."

The district's "sociological problems" were brought down to home as an armed state sion's policemen guarded the entrance to Anne Sullivan's home in Prospect Heights.

THE LAND is 1,000 feet from the bank, and the variation is at the 800 foot difference from the ordinance requirements.

The hearing on that request was continued until Nov. 28 at which time board members are to be supplied with more information.

Last night the Plan Commission again heard testimony on the same property. They indicated they would approve a proposed agreement by which the bank would use the site to provide 23 parking spaces as required in the ordinance until such time as the building is no longer used as a bank.

PROSPECT Heights joined the sanitary district in 1954 and has been paying its share of district taxation for 10 years.

"We are ready to share your collector sewer system. You have to do that by your own initiative."

"You build your collector sewer system and that comes to us and we will tell you that we have no interest in your system to connect with your local system."

Bacon said that the sanitary district, formed in 1899 and labored one of the sewer engineering wonders of the world, drew into a 500 million property.

"For a local purpose, the sanitary district and its sewerage system, come to us and let us know your plans and do everything in our power to bring our inspector sewer system to you," Bacon said.

THE DISTRICT is a 547 million a year operation. Depending on the section in which the taxpayer resides, the district receives from 28 to 30 cents of each $100 assessed valuation of real property.

"The district's tax rate has fluctuated from a high of 43 cents in 1961 to its present low. And we will hold the budget line this year in hopes of reducing our rate more," Bacon said.

"If you go to work and finance a local sewer system," Bacon said, "it will cost you $100 to work for you."

"It makes no sense to do as you want to withdraw," Bacon said, "it is not pleasing with you to stay in the district. But when your area are over-capacity, you will not be able to do it."

"You may be opposed to federal aid on a philosophical basis," Bacon said, "but you must take what your area is entitled to."

Abundant drainage problems in the area, Bacon said that he would instruct his engineers to investigate plans for the streets in MacDonald Creek, the major drainage serving Prospect Heights.

PHIA HAS about 500 member families in 30 areas that include about 1,500 homes. Valiant said that attendance at last night's meeting, the first of the season for the association, was "not what we had hoped for a speaker of Bacon's stature."

Bacon spent about 45 minutes describing the complex

THE LAND is 1,000 feet from the bank, and the variation is at the 800 foot difference from the ordinance requirements.

The hearing on that request was continued until Nov. 28 at which time board members are to be supplied with more information.

Last night the Plan Commission again heard testimony on the same property. They indicated they would approve a proposed agreement by which the bank would use the site to provide 23 parking spaces as required in the ordinance until such time as the building is no longer used as a bank.

Election Judge to Skip Humor

An election judge will do without a "fun" on humorous day at the polls for members of the Whiting-Township Women's Republican Club at the group's meeting Thursday in the Arlington Heights Public Library.

Mrs. Donald Marquet, program chairman, urged all Republican election judges in Whiting-Township to attend the regular meeting of the organization at 8:15 p.m.

Whiting-Township Republican women interested in joining the organization may contact Mrs. Donald Marquet, Mount Prospect, at 255-3633.

Whiting-Township includes the part of Mount Prospect and Arlington Heights that is north of Central Rd. Eugene F. Schickman is the Whiting-Township Republican Committee chairman.

Page Plans Day In 2 Villages

Arlington Heights and Mount Prospect residents will have a day in the sun at the public picnic at the Arlington Heights Public Library.

A few luncheon at the Town Hall at Randolph will climax the day with her husband, and all the events are free and open to the public.

"We are trying to make the picnic a very happy day in the two villages hours he will remember," she said.

ST. P. Page will spend a day at the Arlington Heights Public Library, 111 S. Bristol, Arlington Heights, from 9:30 to 10:30 and then will appear at a second picnic at the Public Library at 11:30 p.m.

'They've Never Seen a Grocery Store'

By Catherine O'Donnell

"I've just got up this one and out to bed." That is what Pat Kilham of Dwyer Ave. said to her friends, Marjorie Dealing of Concord Trail, when she was talking about an experience which she had had at the Arlington Heights hospital.

The Memorial Day parade in Arlington Heights is a very important event to them. A picnic is held for the time to talk to the boys. They are very happy to see them. They are very happy to see them. They are very happy to see them.

The little ordinary things that your children and mine do every day are very important to them. A picnic is held for the time to talk to the boys. They are very happy to see them. They are very happy to see them. They are very happy to see them.

Plan Benefit Card Sale

The building fund of Northwest Community Hospital will benefit from a Christmas card sale this year at the Hospital's gift shop, the Pink Lady.

Proceeds will be applied on a $150,000 pledge to the fund by the hospital Women's Auxiliary, which manages the Pink Lady.

The design shows a green Christmas tree trimmed with red fruit on a white background mounted on a green card. A matching green envelope is included.

A box of 25 may be purchased for $2.75 plus tax, and there is a small additional fee for imprinted names. Cards without names may be purchased at any time at the Pink Lady. Imprinted ones may be ordered at the shop or by calling Mrs. Edwin Brunning of Palestine, card commission chairman, telephone 358-1796. Orders will be delivered in two weeks.

Committee members are Mrs. Robert Valone of Mount Prospect and Mrs. Ira Prossy, Mrs. S. W. Norensberg and Mrs. Rosalind Langham, all of Arlington Heights.

Half the total cost of cards is tax deductible as a donation to the hospital.

Holy Family Brunch Nov. 6

An air-conditioning system for Holy Family Hospital is the objective of a social event to be held Nov. 6 by the hospital's auxiliary.

The event, the first annual brunch of Holy Family, will help the auxiliary build its pledge for the system. About 1,000 guests will attend the benefit, scheduled for 11 a. m. to 2 p. m. at the Post and Paddock Club. Buffet service will be continuous.

Jim Wank's Combo will perform, and stars of radio and television are expected to make guest appearances. Television personality Lou Philip contributed a designer's hat as a short prize. Other donated prizes include a full-length skirt coat.

Tickets, costing $6.25 per person, may be obtained by calling ticket co-chairmen Mrs. Richard Gorgens, 392-7110, or Mrs. John McMahon, 392-4760.

LEFT—It's coffee time for women working on the first annual brunch of Holy Family Hospital, to be held Nov. 6. From left are Mrs. John D. Patterson, Mrs. Anthony Craich, and Mrs. John McMahon.

MRS. PAUL GLICK of Mount Prospect puts ornaments on a tree at the Boutique Nook of the Women's Auxiliary of Northwest Community Hospital held last week at the hospital. Hundreds of shoppers crowded the hospital foyer and the auxiliary gift shop, the Pink Lady.

Plum Leads Parade

If you think plum is a good color for plums but not people, your eyes may be affronted by a group number of clothing articles shown this season in the soft purple.

Casts lead the parade, from vest styles to tube jackets. Perhaps in a sort of revolt from the military khaki color and severe black, many designers are thinking plum.

The coat-dress is another favorite in plum this fall, particularly with American designers bored with the shocking pink shown so widely over.

Then there's the plum sheath, popular with this year's sculptured tailoring. The shade carries fine well, yields a stunning effect.

But that's not all. Even the nightgown designers have caught the plum bug.

The rustic pajamas and flannel nightgowns of — you guessed it — plum.

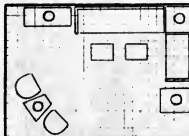

Dressed in the uniform of a hospital volunteer, Mrs. Paul Glick presides over a table of stationary at the Boutique Nook.

September Court Fines Are $35,964

Fines collected in September by the northern suburban 24 Municipal District of the Circuit Court of Cook County topped the August figure by $792. The September figure was $35,964, bringing the year total to $134,109.

The fines, most of them for traffic violations, are turned back to the 19 municipalities that make up the court system.

Arlington Heights collected $2,993 for September, bringing its total for the year to $34,293.50.

Repaired Mendons collected $445 for the month, bringing its total to $5,707.

Purchasing Agent's Duties Outlined

A detailed policy on the authority and duties of a purchasing agent has been adopted by the High School District 214 board of education.

Board members approved a district policy for purchasing to provide the buying of John Brooks as purchasing agent. Brooks was hired in June for the position.

A statement of philosophy outlines the function of the purchasing office to serve the educational program by providing the necessary supplies, equipment and services and states the intent of the board of education to purchase competitively without prejudice and to seek the maximum educational value for expenditures.

Directions on the purchasing policy, procedures, responsibilities, and purchase orders also were contained in the policy.

The purchasing agent is responsible to the director of business services.

Included in the policy is an increase in the policy can fund for each building from $25 to $100 to meet immediate needs of personnel and organization.

Mr. Edward Smith, 221 S. Winkler, Arlington Heights, has been elected president of the Illinois Association of Real Estate Boards at the group's 20th annual convention in Chicago last week. Smith, president of the firm of Smith-Pedersen, Inc. in Des Plaines, has been in the real estate business for 40 years.

Clinton M. Jones, 1352 Anderson Dr., Palestine, has been appointed assistant secretary by the North American Co. for Life, Accident, and Health Insurance. Jones joined North American in 1959 as personal director.

A Republican task force charged today that "definite evidence" exists to show Chicago is "shortchanging the city" by diverting tax dollars for education into "city services."

Don J. Sodero, chairman of the Republican Task Force for Better Schools, said a study by his group compared how other suburbs divide available taxes. It reveals Chicago takes about three times more out of every tax dollar for "city services" than the suburbs do for their schools.

While Chicago's population has declined slightly in recent years, the suburbs have experienced a population explosion and the suburbs have had to provide more services to more residents, Sodero pointed out.

"But instead of adding more taxes, the suburbs have been able to provide more services to more residents with fewer residents to serve," Sodero charged.

He said that the figures for 1965, which a spot check by the Republican task force showed was a "typical year," reveal the following:

City or Township	Percentage For City	Percentage For Schools
Chicago	32.2	42.1
Arlington Heights	5.3	92.3
Barrington	5.1	73.7
Beverly	12.1	99.6
Des Plaines	10.4	84.1
Elmhurst	17.9	64.7
Glenview	16.9	65.1
Montrose	9.7	69.9
Kenneth	14.5	80.1
Morton Grove	9.5	80.4
Oak Park	13.2	84.1
Palatine	10.8	87.7
Park Forest	14.5	71.9
Skokie	14.5	87.9
Waukegan	5.7	72.5
Winnetka	14.6	87.0
Average	17.8	82.8

Chicago obviously isn't.

"Chicago obviously isn't," Sodero pointed out. The suburbs utilized 84.4 per cent of the available funds for education compared to only 33.1 per cent in Chicago, he said.

BUGS BUNNY

Your Horoscope

SCORPIO (Oct 24-Nov 22) - Intuition is your main asset today. Pay strict attention not only to your own affairs but also to what is going on around you.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov 23-Dec 22) - Forceful language may well give you your end of the story; physical force, however, will certainly keep them from you.

CAPRICORN (Dec 23-Jan 20) - Become adroit at weeding out ideas, but don't become so much so that you fail to recognize a good one when it occurs to you.

AQUARIUS (Jan 21-Feb 19) - Don't allow your natural desire to be candid cause you to be brutal in your frankness. Temper criticism with constructive suggestions.

PISCIS (Feb. 20-Mar. 21) - A time for being grateful for what you have, rather than for wishing time blossoming the fact that you don't have more.

ARIES (Mar. 22-Apr. 20) - Seek an impartial judge as try to decide the course of action best for you. You may not be able to see the forest for the trees.

TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21) - Progressive action should gain you at least one goal today. Don't take another's word, decide for yourself when you've done enough.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21) - Boldness on your part may be just what is needed to force another into long-overdue action. Do your best in this direction.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23) - Caprice has no part in summer days. Know what you want and go out after it - and don't change horses midstream.

LEO (July 24-Aug. 23) - Make a genuine effort to be agreeable to business or professional associates. Show yourself willing to cooperate.

VIRGO (Aug. 24-Sept. 23) - Feelings of restlessness and insecurity may disturb your equilibrium today and show your progress. Get over the bumps as best you can.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23) - An excellent day for the creative Libra. Let your imagination soar, but don't demand perfection of its results.

MORTY MECKLE

THE BORN LOSER

This is our baby picture

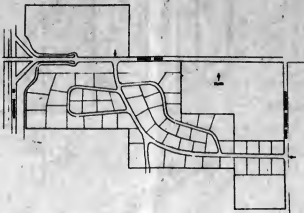

It takes a lot of planning to raise a baby. Our infant, Arlington Industrial and Research Center, is no exception. As a matter of fact, we have spent years running this project. In the coming months, our center will be growing. It will receive its nourishment from various industries requiring a planned site in a strategic and prestige Chicagoland location. Arlington Industrial and Research Center... with more than 350 acres of planned and developed property... has facilities for your offices, plants and warehouses.

A drawing of our plans

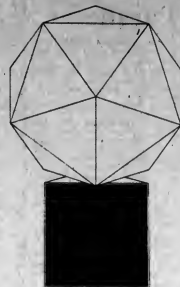

These are our plans. We feel they contain all the important elements necessary to design an excellent industrial and research center.

In this drawing you can see that our 350 acres, located on new interstate 61, has all the identification and accessibility required for a successful center. What you can't see are our four-lane paved roads, complete underground utilities (including electrical and telephone cables) and landscaped parkways. Incidentally, O'Hare International Airport and other major expressways are nearby. Although we don't show it on the map, our plans call for construction of a unique multiple use building offering tenants offices, warehouse and manufacturing facilities.

Our symbol, constructed in steel and marble, at Arlington Industrial and Research Center. It is an icosahedron.

Definition: Icosahedron (i-kos-a-hedron), n., pl. -hedra. 1. A geometric figure composed of twenty equilateral triangles. 2. Entrance symbol at Arlington Industrial and Research Center. We think it is a fitting symbol for industry and research, because of its sturdy and exacting appearance. The icosahedron seems very mathematical, yet it is rather handsome. In some ways it is much like the center itself.

arlington industrial and research center

a final view

This is the fourth ad introducing the Arlington Industrial and Research Center. The previous advertisements gave you some idea of our pride in this 350 acre industrial and research development. We are especially proud to be located in one of the nation's fastest growing communities. Its potential is very much a part of our plan and our appeal.

We are looking forward to a long and friendly relationship with the people living in and around Arlington Heights. Won't you be a part of it?

Registration Opens For Career Conference

Doctor, lawyer, merchant, chief — if choice of career is keeping you confused these days, the Chicago Ann. of Commerce and Industry might be able to help.

The association will sponsor a two-day college career conference Dec. 28 and 29 at the Sheraton-Chicago Hotel. More than 100 major area employers have agreed to participate. Their representatives will answer questions from college students from freshman to graduate levels.

LAST YEAR'S conference was the largest such event held in America, according to Thomas H. Conner, the conference's chief executive officer. Occupations represented will include accounting, advertising, banking, chemistry, design, education, engineering, health care, law, and more.

For Pretty, Not Fussy, Hairdos

RIGHT — After your daughter's hair is set, she's ready for the dryer. Hand bands in place with tape. Brush thoroughly to the style you selected (right) with vigorous strokes. Add a bow for party time.

If you sometimes look at your little girl and wonder if her hair will ever look more, take heart.

Julius Caruso, a New York stylist, has a few words of advice for mothers who'd like their youngster's hair to be prettier, yet not fussy.

Start with a haircut (wet hair, towel-blotted). Use a comb to establish an imaginary line indicating the desired length of the hair.

If they style you want curls for bangs, cut these last. Snip the bangs evenly to a length of about a half-inch above the eyebrows. If bangs are to be curled, cut at least a half-inch longer.

At this point, your daughter is ready for a home permantent. Carefully read the instructions enclosed to your little girl's home-permanent kit and follow them to the letter. This is no time to improvise. For a basic set, after the foaming lotion has been applied and the procedure finished, use large rollers — 2 to 2 1/2 inches in diameter. These make a few pin curls at the cheeks and neckline.

Here's a secret from Caruso for better setting. Instead of putting off the strand in straight lines at the scalp, use a zigzag or even part. When you brush out the hair, it will bend better.

Suddenly, It's Christmas

What'll You Wear? Be Different

Summer ended yesterday, and spring was about a week ago.

Anyway, that's how it seems to many a busy housemaker. She is just getting into the swing of one season — and suddenly it's over.

By that logic, the holidays are due within the next three hours.

In addition to buying presents, trimming trees and baking pudding, the holidays call to mind parties and open houses. And parties and open houses call to mind that old question: "what shall I wear?"

Make your answer different this year, something new and original. It'll help you feel — at least for a few hours — carefree and glib.

Start by determining the type of clothing you generally wear.

If you usually wear tailored dress dresses, get something with flowing sleeves or a flounce at the hemline as your continuous to change.

If you have a few favorite cocktail dresses of the blouse, buy something with soft but bright sunset colors or any print.

The reverse is true?

Then make your holiday purchase a black velvet dress or two-piece suit.

Line of dress is another basic that needs occasional change. Empire style looks nice at almost every season, and provides welcome relief from more conventional styles.

If you're the conventional type who likes long sleeves and high necklines, try one of the new halter-type dresses with scooped-out sleeves.

FOR THE GAL who usually dresses in more revealing clothes, there's currently the biggest selection ever of demure neckline styles. Patterns for evening are in vogue, and can look very appealing and feminine on the right woman.

In any event, they're worth trying on during a visit to your favorite shop.

If you're really looking for a really bold departure from your normal wardrobe, investigate exotic costumes like the collar of a floor-length Neosue smock in gay print.

Send extravaganzas! Then make your new look from a promising pattern.

Special Devotions Sunday

The Rev. Dr. Ross P. Scherer will be guest preacher at Faith Lutheran Church on Reformation Sunday, Oct. 30. His topic will be "Christ is Not Devised, So Why Must Christians?"

The Mass at 8 a.m. and the Festival Workshop at 10:45 a.m. will commemorate the 449 anniversary of the Protestant Reformation.

The study of Faith Church will sing at the festival, Carole S. Westbury, director of music, will conduct the choir in the chorale, "Bells on the Rock the Church Dock Stand."

At the 9:30 Sunday school session a special Reformation service devotion will be held in the church, with musical members by the children and a message by Rev. C. David Stuckmeyer, assistant pastor, as part of the service.

Rev. Scherer, former director of military studies for the National Council of Churches, New York, N. Y., is now assistant professor of sociology at Loyola University, Chicago. A Lutheran, Scherer is the first ordained minister of a Roman Catholic faith to be appointed to the faculty of Loyola.

Rev. Scherer is a native of Fort Wayne, Ind. He graduated from Concordia Seminary, St. Louis, Mo., in 1946 and received a master's degree in Architect Walter Kroeber's rendering of the Our Redeemer Lutheran Church in Prospect Heights with the proposed addition at the right of the picture.

A Busy Weekend

Many and varied activities are planned for the fest week of October at Grace Evangelical Lutheran Church, 814 and Wolf roads, Prospect Heights.

A public showing of "Martin Luther" will be held Friday, Oct. 28, at 7:30 p.m. The film was nominated for several academy awards when it was shown in 1957. There will be no charge and no offering. Mark Longfield and Robert Lindsay will be projectors.

The festival of the Reformation will be celebrated at Grace, Sunday, Oct. 30. The Senior choir, directed by Harold Klansky, will have Mozart's "The Harems are Telling" at their anthem at the 11 a.m. service. The congregation will observe the day by laying the cornerstone for the new church building at a special service at 10:40 a.m. Under the direction of Arlyn Hedin, the Music and Worship Committee has collected a number of historical items to be included in the stone. Participants in the cornerstone service include general contractor, Leo Bergstrom and architect Ed Berns of Cooley, Berns and Associates.

Kick-Off Dinner Sunday

Our Redeemer Lutheran Church of Prospect Heights will hold their kick-off dinner at 2 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 30 at the McArthur Jr. High School in Prospect Heights.

The dinner and meeting will acquaint the entire congregation with the proposed new addition of classrooms for increased Sunday school enrollment; a larger fellowship and study hall; and improvements and facilities for their continued growth in the community.

Walter Kroeber of Arlington Heights is the architect in charge of the addition.

Movies, Music and Parties

Search For Basic Understanding

"Searching for Basic Understanding of the Old Testament" is the theme for the year study of the newest adult education class of the Arlington Heights Congregational U. Church, 1111 W. 111th, Kitch and Kaminick.

The group will be studying selected key passages, asking what the biblical message is to us in our day, according to Rev. W. Rowland Koch.

College President At Christian Church

Dr. M. Cary Brewer, president of Lynchburg College, Lynchburg, Va., will be guest speaker at the 10:45 a.m. worship service on Sunday, Oct. 30 at the Christian Church of Arlington Heights.

Dr. Brewer is the college's 64th year history. Lynchburg is a Christian Church related college with an enrollment of 1,400.

A native of Lynchburg, Dr. Brewer graduated from Lynchburg College in 1941 and came on leave. As a Lutheran Fellow at Harvard University, he received his Master of Public Administration and a Doctor of Philosophy in Political Science.

Dr. Brewer served in senior defense specialist, military operations subcommittee, U. S. House of Representatives, 1957-60. He was a professional staff member of the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy of the U. S. Congress, 1960-61. In 1961 he joined the Executive Office of the President of the U. S. and was service as Director of the Civil Affairs Office, Office of Emergency Planning when he accepted the presidency of Lynchburg College in 1964.
